

Press Release
For Immediate Release

Endless x Abbey Road Studios Classic English Rock Celebrated with Contemporary Street Art

The most famous recording studio in the world and global music icon, Abbey Road Studios, is inviting London-based urban artist Endless to redecorate their famous front wall in celebration of the 50th anniversary of The Beatles' iconic album Abbey Road.

Photo Credit: Noel Shelley

Urban artist Endless has established himself as one of the most exciting talents on the scene. His bold, thought-provoking artworks turn heads, adorning the walls of the UK capital. Often touching on themes of British culture, the artist's work aligns perfectly with Abbey Road Studios.

Abbey Road is the eleventh studio album by the English rock band, released on 26 September 1969 by Apple Records. The recording sessions were the last in which all four Beatles participated. Also, the namesake of Abbey Road Studios, the album cover has become one of the most famous and imitated images in popular music.

Taking inspiration from the album's hidden track Her Majesty, Endless will paint a 6-metre mural on October 22nd, which will be showcased for two weeks.

Endless' artwork is available worldwide exclusively through Contini Contemporary gallery in London.

High Res Images

For more information, please contact

KIKO GASPAR
COMMUNICATIONS

endless@kikogaspar.com

+351 919 585 389

www.kikogaspar.com