

View this email in your browser

frieze

NEWSLETTER

Marina Abramović's Most Ambitious Performance Yet

A four-hour immersive experience at Manchester's Aviva Studios explores sex, death and ritual, collapsing personal and collective memory

Jafar Panahi on Art After Imprisonment

Speaking about his newest film, the Iranian director reflects on filmmaking under oppression, the art of performance and the dark humour that keeps his work alive

Isaac Chong Wai Finds Empowerment
Through Care

In his show at Blindspot Gallery, Hong Kong, the artist considers war and occupation in his birthplace

READ
NOW

Lukas Luzius Leichtle Gets Under Our Skin

At CCA Berlin,
the artist's quiet studies of skin and surface reveal how the body both shelters and estranges us

READ
NOW

Lu Yang's Virtual Avatar Is Endlessly Reborn

In a series of videos
at Amant, Brooklyn, the artist's alter
ego accesses truths
about existence, time and reincarnation

READ
NOW

'TRANSITS' by Paolo Battistutta

Faces and abstractions collide: visceral portraits and tondos reveal transformation, emotion and raw vulnerability.

14 October – 15 November 2025, Cris Contini Contemporary, Notting Hill, London

FIND OUT MORE

FRIEZE
1 SURREY STREET
WC2R 2ND
LONDON UK

Copyright © 2025 Frieze, All rights reserved.
You are receiving information from Frieze as you have signed up to receive our eNewsletters.

Want to change how you receive these emails?
You can update your preferences or unsubscribe from this list.