ENDLESS

"His work appears bold and raw on the face of it, but when you look closely each piece contains a powerful message about worship in the world today."

He goes by the name "Endless" – a word which embodies his limitless creativity, passion and drive. Endless is a London-based artist, who infuses street and contemporary art techniques and practices. After six years of study, Endless graduated from Cambridge School of Art, where he specialized in fine art and screen printing. Shortly after this, he moved to London and began sharing his ideas with the world in the form of street-art.
The journey from street to gallery has seen Endless' reputation rise, capturing the attention of the art world, brands and the media alike.

Never lacking in meaning or depth, the key messages within the vibrant artwork interpret the artist's unbiased social observations, exploring humanity's relationship with fashion, advertising, brand-worship, consumerism, and celebrity culture, often infusing contemporary urban imagery throughout. Endless continually pushes boundaries and breaks the mould for his genre of art.

In 2021, he donated his self-portrait with Gilbert & George to Le Gallerie degli Uffizi, becoming the first street artist in history to have artwork within the prestigious Medici collection.
In spring 2022, Endless exhibited at the 59th International Art Exhibition – 'La Biennale di Venezia', representing The Republic of San Marino in showcasing 'Postumano Metamorfico'.
Endless was the first street artist to paint the main window display and front doors of the historical Liberty London department store, with a piece paying homage to 50 years of British Punk. Endless was asked to honor the 50-year anniversary of the Beatles' 'Abbey Road' album with a celebratory mural outside the iconic building. His murals Treviso Lizzy Vuitton, Kingdom of The Fanes and Powder to the People - the latter created for the 2021 Ski World Championships in Cortina d'Ampezzo, are just some of the open-air works that bear his signature.

Endless boasts numerous collaborations with international artists, including Gilbert & George and luxury brands such as Karl Lagerfeld, with whom he released a capsule clothing collection, NFT artworks and a commemorative mural honoring the late designer. Endless followed in the footsteps of Andy Warhol and Keith Haring, when he was asked by Fiorucci to design limited edition collections for the opening of the new London flagship store in 2019.
Today, Endless continues to express ideas through his street-art, but his most exclusive work can be found in Cris Contini Contemporary Galleries and within the homes of collectors world-wide.
